

FALL/ WINTER & SPRING RECAP

If you have a friend who would be interested in knowing what's going on please pass along the newsletter or share us with them on social media. And if you're not already, give us a follow on social media (Facebook, Instagram, Youtube, X and LinkedIn.)

We are coming towards the end of the first year in our new space and what a year it has been!

This year saw a lot of growth for our students and for Theater Visions. The foundation relocated to Mladost 1A in mid-August and the number of courses and students has continued to grow.

Here's a recap. During the academic year we made a lot of new friends and had many returning students. Here are the numbers for how many different completers in each cohort: 7 teens, 15 children and 20 adults!

A list of courses that have run in the new studio:

- Teen Acting Summer Short Course
- Drama & English September Academy (2 weeks)
- Acting - Adults - (5 times)
- Acting - Teens (3 times)
- Drama Games - Children (2 times)
- Drama Kids
- Elevate English - Children (3 times)
- Elevate English - Adults
- Improv - Adults
- Mommy & Me Storytime (with Glagolets and Dancing with Marlee)
- Script Work - Teens

In addition we expanded our fall performance of The Edgar Allan Poe Soiree. This year there were 5 international cast members (Bulgaria, Germany, Latvia, UK & USA) and 12 different musicians took part in various combinations. Also we upped the number of performances to seven. Five performances took place at KEVA and two at our new studio location.

WHAT TO EXPECT & EXCITING NEWS

Drama & English Summer Academy

The Drama & English Summer Academy begins this Monday! Sign your child (ages 6-11) up for two weeks of creativity, outside games and theatre games all in English. The Summer Academy will operate 22- 26 June and 29 June - 3 July. You may enroll your child for both weeks or one week. Choose full or half day and there are also spaces available for day enrollments. Advance registration is required. You can find more details and registration is available through the website. ### On The Horizon

Be on the lookout for social events during the summer. We intend to host nights (or days) to gather former students and friends together for board & card games, movies, and creative nights. We may offer additional special events or short courses pending confirmation.

Our regular courses will return in the fall. We expect to offer Elevate English, Acting, Improv (for the different age groups) and a General American dialect course for adults. If you have interest in the General American dialect course please complete this 1 minute survey to help with course planning. SURVEY\_LINK

Studio Rentals

Our versatile studio space is available for rentals and is ideal for meetings, seminars, rehearsals, birthday parties, and small events. The room comfortably accommodates 24 people, though capacity may vary depending on the type of event and room setup. Whether you're planning a professional gathering or a special celebration, our flexible space can be adapted to suit your needs. The studio is conveniently located near Happy Mladost, 2 metro stations and multiple bus stops. Visit our website for details, availability, and rental information. RENTAL\_INFORMATION

The Bacchae with 2 National Theatres!

Mark received a phone call one afternoon from the Ivan Vazov National Theatre. They asked if I would be interested and available to assist them on a special project and that he was the first person they thought of...

He just finished 6 weeks of General American dialect coaching working with the Chorus for Javor Gardev's production of Euripides The Bacchae. The chorus consists of 12 performers (3 from the Vazov and 9 from the National Theatre of Northern Greece).

The show features a multi-national cast and team from Bulgaria, Greece, UK, Slovenia and USA. And you won't want to miss the British featured musical trio, The Tiger Lillies, performing right alongside the fabulous cast. The spectacle premieres in July and then tours Greece and Cyprus before coming to Bulgaria.
